

Be the first to know

about new technologies that are going to dramatically impact your business

In March 2009, MIT's Technology Review, the world's oldest technology publication, and CyberMedia, India's leading technology publisher, will be organizing the prestigious annual conference, EmTech India 2009. This will be the first EmTech conference to be held outside the United States.

EmTech India 2009 is packed with groundbreaking presentations, interactive breakout sessions and live demonstrations. Topics range from information technology to alternative energy, biotechnology, and nanotechnology.

We invite you to join senior business leaders, VCs, technologists, and innovators as they come together to explore the emerging technologies poised to dramatically impact the way we live and do business.
